This pamphlet summarizes
Development Charges By-law No.
2024-110, effective January 1, 2025

The information contained herein is intended only as a general reference. Interested parties should review the approved bylaw and consult with staff at the Town of Gravenhurst to determine applicable charges that may apply to specific development proposals.

Term of By-law

By-law 2024-110 was passed on November 19, 2024 by the Town of Gravenhurst Council and came into effect on January 1, 2025. This by-law is set to expire on January 1, 2035.

Purpose of Development Charges

Development charges are used to pay for capital costs associated with providing infrastructure and services for new development and redevelopment.

Development charge funds may only be used for the purpose for which they are collected.

Development Charges Related Services

The following is a list of services to which the development charges relate:

- Roads and Related
- Fire Protection
- Outdoor Recreation
- Library
- Development Related Studies
- Stormwater Management

Rules for Determining if a Development Charge is payable:

In general you may be required to pay development charges for land development or redevelopment projects if you are:

- Constructing a new building;
- Making an addition or alteration to an existing building that increases the number of dwelling units;
- Redeveloping a property where the existing gross floor area is being increased.

Examples of when a Development Charge is not payable:

- When an existing dwelling unit is enlarged;
- Secondary suites contained within a single detached or semi-detached dwelling, townhouse / row home, or ancillary to the same including a coach house, laneway suite or structure above an existing garage, a bunkie or a sleeping cabin with or without a bathroom and / or kitchen facilities;
- Non-profit Housing Development;
- For Commercial or Industrial development that is not commercial accommodation premises;
- Farm buildings/structures used to carry on a bona fide farming operation, such as barns, silos and other ancillary development to an agricultural use, but excludes buildings used for residential purposes.

Development Charge Collection

Development charges are payable in full on the date that the building permit application is submitted.

Under the Development Charges Act S. 26.1; payment of the Development Charges is deferred to 6 installments (the date of occupancy and then each of the following five anniversaries) for the following types of development:

- Rental housing (4 or more units)
- Institutional Development, which includes;
 - Long Term Care Homes
 - Retirement Homes
 - Hospice

A Development Charge rate is frozen under S.26.2 of the Development Charges Act and is determined at the later of the day of application for site plan control or the day of application for zoning amendment are deemed complete. DC frozen rates are valid for a period of 18 months

Interest is accrued on the frozen DC rate from the date of a completed application for amendments to zoning or site plan agreement to the date of payment of the development charge.

The rate of interest on frozen or deferred Development Charge is prime plus 1%.
